OPI LOG

The two man Throttler team, which exfiltrated on 21 October 1952 has arrived in Athens where the team members will be held for future operations. The increasingly adverse weather and security conditions in Albania will very likely preclude further operations during the remainder of this season.

The team reported that all their contacts were safe but frightened by a patrol skirmish on 9 October which alerted the team's operational area. IN 10499
